PERSPECTIVE

A tall, stately girl is merely a long skinny girl with money. — Vail (Iowa) Observer.

For your good offering of livestock in our Friday's Auction Sale

We abide by all the provisions of the Packers and Stockyard Act. We have nothing to hide from you, and after studying the Act very carefully, it will not hurt your operation. It was passed for your benefit by Congress in 1921.

You desired an open competitive livestock auction and you invested your money in 1952. We believe that you still desire the same and are giving you the opportunity to bring your livestock and invite your neighbor to bring his to the first barn that assumed its responsibility and posted when notices were received.

Rumors are flying furiously as to why all barns in Georgia are posted. For your information I don't think any individual has the power to bring this service to Georgia. The information that all of us have received is that all stockyards in the United States will be posted.

The change in commissions was voluntarily made by stockyards because barns in adjoining areas felt that commissions in Statesboro, Ga., were unfair. This increase can be justified if we barn operators will exert our efforts in promoting the livestock industry in Bulloch County.

We intend to justify your very kind consideration and again earnestly solicit your support.

Union W. M. S. Presents Program

An interesting program on "Praise From The Isles" was presented Wednesday afternoon at the community hour by the W. M. S. of Union Baptist Church.

The program, a study of Hawaii, was arranged by Mrs. Delmas Rushing, Jr. As each member entered the door she was given a flower for her hair and a lei was placed around her neck. A large arrangement of fruit centered the table and a punch bowl surrounded by flowers was on another. All of this helped to create the Hawaiian atmosphere.

Mrs. C. M. Nevils gave the devotional lesson from Isaiah 42. We learned that there are many different religions in Hawaii making it a difficult mission field, but the devotionals were well received.

Others taking part on the program were: Mrs. G. E. Strickland, Mrs. Colon Akins, Mrs. Clinton Rushing, Jr., Mrs. Edna Abernethy, Mrs. Hubert Waters, Mrs. Johnnie Brown, and Mrs. Delmas Rushing, Jr.

During the business meeting, Mrs. G. E. Strickland gave a report on the Community Music Day of Prayer which was held at the home of Mrs. Colon Akins. After a short program the ladies visited the sick in the community and also at the Bulloch County Hospital, carrying them flowers and gifts.

During the social hour fruit punch and cookies were served.

Con. Preston Demands End USIA Book

Congressman Prince H. Preston has demanded that the United States Information Agency remove a book from its overseas information program.

The book, "Capitalism in America," is a book by the late Senator Charles McNamara, which makes the South "the whipping boy" for the Negro problem.

The First District Congressman objected to several passages in the book, "Capitalism in America," which were particularly offensive to the South.

Mr. Preston said that several copies of the book were "highly objectionable" and that he would like to see the book removed from the library of the United States Information Agency.

He said the Supreme Court could make the South a "whipping boy" and "the book is a disgrace to the United States."
